LONG COVID & CHILDREN

What is Long COVID?

A person who's had COVID-19 can have long-term health problems called Long COVID or Post-COVID conditions after recovering. Anyone who's had COVID can get it. These health problems that can last weeks, months or years. There's isn't any medication or treatment for it yet.

Symptoms

- Fatigue or tiredness
- Difficulty concentrating or memory loss ("brain fog")
- Fevers
- Trouble breathing

Last updated: 1/13/23