

MYTH-BUSTING!

Wrong information about COVID-19 and the vaccines has been spreading all over social media and the internet. Let's look at some common myths and clear up confusion.

MYTH: I will get COVID-19 if I get the COVID-19 vaccine.

FACT: The vaccines do not have the virus.

MYTH: The COVID-19 vaccines have microchips.

FACT: The vaccines were made to protect you from COVID-19. There are no microchips or trackers.

MYTH: I will become magnetic if I get the COVID-19 vaccine.

FACT: All COVID-19 vaccines are free from metals.

MYTH: Getting vaccinated while pregnant is not safe.

FACT: Getting vaccinated is safe when trying to get pregnant, during pregnancy and while breastfeeding.

MYTH: The COVID-19 vaccines were developed too fast.

FACT: The science behind the vaccines have been around for years, so creating the vaccines did not take a long time.

MYTH: The COVID-19 vaccines will change my DNA.

FACT: The vaccines do not change or interact with DNA.

MYTH: The COVID-19 vaccines affect fertility.

FACT: They don't affect in men or women.

MYTH: I had COVID-19, so i don't need to get vaccinated.

FACT: You can get COVID-19 more than once, so you should to get vaccinated. Experts also aren't sure how long you're protected from the virus after recovering.