A person who's had COVID-19 can have long-term health problems called Long COVID or Post-COVID conditions after getting better. Anyone who's had COVID can get it. These health problems that can last weeks, months or years. There's no medication or treatment for it yet.

COMMON SYMPTOMS

- Difficulty thinking or paying attention
- Tiredness
- Fever
- Difficulty breathing or shortness of breath
- Headache

Be up-to-date with your COVID-19 vaccinations so that you can help prevent Long COVID.