GETTING HELP!

If you don't have a doctor and have COVID-19, you can still get help. Visit a Test-To-Treat site. You will be tested for COVID-19 and prescribed treatments if you're eligible. These sites can also prescribe treatment if you tested positive at another location (example: at-home testing).

You can also contact your closest health center or your local or state departments of public health for help.