Government programs that help with food or food costs for low income - The programs listed below are from the US Department of Agriculture (although some are run by states) for different groups of people and offer food help in different ways. You may qualify for more than one program.

For more information about these programs, call the National Hunger Hotline at 1-866-348-6479 (1-866-3-HUNGRY); for Spanish, call 1-877-842-6273. Or visit https://whyhunger.org/find-food/

1. Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP - allows people to shop for food in grocery stores using a special Electronic Benefits Transfer card, much like a bank card. To ask about SNAP by phone, call your state or local health department, social services department, or call 1-800-221-5689 for a local number.

2. Food distribution programs (these programs distribute food directly to needy families):
   - Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP)
   - The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP)

3. Voucher and coupon programs such as Women, Infants and Children (WIC, for pregnant women, infants, and children) include access to fresh foods for families and senior citizens:
   - Farmers’ Market Nutrition Program
   - Senior Farmers’ Market Nutrition Program

School meals (served to children only in schools) such as the National School Lunch Program or School Breakfast Program. Summer Food Service Program are meals for kids at community sites when school’s out and may be available in your community.

Meals on Wheels

For people who are disabled, homebound, or elderly. Volunteers deliver ready-to-eat meals to your home. Costs or fees vary depending on your age and where you live. Contact Meals on Wheels at 888-998-6325 or visit their website at www.mealsonwheelsamerica.org.
